All,

The Youth Group Search Committee met last night to discuss Jamey Grimsley's interview last weekend.

Our conclusion was to not extend an offer to Jamey at this time. He is a solid candidate with a clear love of God and of children. However, he did not provide an enthusiastic yes for members of the committee, parents, teens or staff.

The committee feels that it is in the best interest of our congregation and teens to interview other candidates before making a final decision about Jamey. As a result, I will be communicating to Jamey that we will be evaluating other candidates before making a final decision.

Let me know if you have any questions or comments.

Thanks,

Lane
