Kidmin News: December 6th-15th

Dear, Bret

As we are approaching week 2 of our MX Unplugged: An Advent Series, I want you to take a second to recount a few points from week 1.

- Between the last words of the Old Testament and the New Testament, 400 years had passed. Can you imagine waiting that long for a king to raise you from your enslavers?
- The prophet Isaiah recounted his prophecies about the coming Messiah to the people of Israel. Between Isaiah's time and the birth of Jesus, 700 years had passed. In my human experience, I would assume that the people grew tired of waiting for the Messiah to be born.

As we transition to Week 2, what are you anticipating during this time of waiting? For some of us, we may need Week 2 the most of this season.

Read Luke. 1:26-33

-Mr. Jeremiah

December 24th Sunday Morning Worship

Join us on December 24th during regular service time for this fun experience of Gingerbread Bash. Children will begin in our service and be released to children's worship for this amazing experience of hands, hearts, and lives. We will interactively experience the birth story. Can't wait for you to join us.

Upcoming Events

MX Kids Christmas Caroling

Join our Kids Ministry as we participate with Steve Haupt and Valerie Creech to take music into the nursing home at Bethesda Garden. We have several of our Mx friends who are residents, and we want to remember them during this season.

Meet us at Bethesda Garden Nursing Home from 6:00-7:30.

Christmas Play Rehearsal

CHRISTMAS PLAY
Rehearsal

October 22nd
10:15 AM

During Children's Worship

Your participation is highly expected for this occasion.

Our MX Kids Christmas experience practices have gone well as of late. For the next two weeks, during Bible Class, we will rehearse inside the auditorium. This means that preschool-elementary won't have a formal Bible class for the next two weeks. I have attached the MX Kids Christmas experience script to this email. Please find your child's name and work with them on their part.
