

Memo of Understanding

Dear Jason,

The Elders at McKnight have decided, after congregational input and much prayer, to call you to serve as our next Lead Minister. We are convinced that you possess the faith, maturity and skills to both take-on and grow into the role as a gifted minister.

Your position is under the oversight of the elders at McKnight. Of course, you will work in leading and collaborating with the other ministers and office staff.

I. General Information

1. Job Title – Lead Minister
2. Job Relationship – Supervised by Elders
3. Position Summary – To lead and serve the church family in preaching, teaching, strategic planning, and in supporting and developing staff, ministries, and members.

II. Lead Minister Duties:

1. Proclaim the Word of God.

- a. Maintain a discipline of personal growth in prayer and the Word of God.
- b. Deliver quality Biblical messages each Sunday that are inspiring and applicable to daily life (approx. 40/year), helping to arrange occasional guest speakers and having absences approved.
- c. Oversee and plan worship in coordination with the Worship Team, overseeing the Sunday worship assemblies, special worship times, including transitions and ad-hoc meetings.
- d. Oversee Spiritual Formation Team, teaching classes on Sunday or during the week as needed.

2. Provide Spiritual and Pastoral Care.

- a. Offer and coordinate pastoral care and guidance to church members and others, including the sick, and shut-ins.
- b. Be on call for pastoral emergencies.
- c. Coordinate pastoral care and planning for funerals, weddings, and other special requests and events.

3. Provide Leadership.

- a. Work closely in relationships of mutual trust and support with the elders. We are a leadership team.
- b. Consistently champion the church's mission, vision, and values.
- c. Cast vision for community outreach, events, and programs to strengthen the church.
- d. Offer strategic planning and support to on-going and new Ministry Leaders and Ministry Teams.
- e. Encourage and model discipleship relationships and a growing devotion to God.
- f. Meet at least monthly and as needed with church elders. Elders will set meeting agendas and chair the meetings. Your input will be welcomed and desired during these times of decision making.

4. Ministry and Administrative Staff Responsibilities.

- a. Grow into coordinating and overseeing Ministry Staff to carry out the church's vision, ensuring team cohesion, alignment, and execution of roles and tasks, including periodic meetings.
- b. Personnel decisions (hire/fire/discipline/accolades) are made by the elders with input from you as a vital part of the leadership team. Annual job reviews are conducted by you with an elder's assistance.
- c. Coordinate and facilitate staff meetings to nurture staff, respond to needs in church body, implement administrative tasks, and coordinate staff, ministry, and congregational calendars in partnership with the Administrative Minister.
