

Reference for Jason Mundie from Dusty Rush on 10/24/24

Reference from Dusty Rush. Dusty has known Jason for several years and has been coaching him in preaching for the past year.

Describe the working situation you had with Jason?

Dusty knew Jason when he first moved to the Campus Church of Christ in Atlanta as the preaching minister. Jason was the middle school minister. Dusty did two retreats for his campus ministry group. He has worked with him to transitioning to preaching for a couple of years and formally coaching him this past year.

What are a few adjectives that would describe some of his strengths?

Hard worker diligent very intelligent self taught good communicator Some ways will be better off than Jeff. Great story teller great marketing on social media

What are a few adjectives that would describe some of his weaknesses?

Social presence a little shy, but will overcome over time

How would you describe his preaching?

Likes to teach one text and work methodically. Good story teller. Will be attractive to young families. Very good at giving takeaways.

How would you describe his teaching?

Don't know. Never seen him teach.

If he leaves, what are you going to miss the most?

Not applicable but that church LOVES him.

Can you describe his leadership style?

Quiet leader but is social. Wife is more outgoing.

Describe him as a father and husband?

Great father and husband. He is very present with his family. Feels like his marriage is his greatest strength. Has weird phone – it does nothing...barely texts. He has this on purpose so that he can be present with his family

Can you share a reason why we should not hire him?

No reason

What do you see as the most compelling reason we should hire him?

Young. It will be a risk with it being his first preaching job but you will know what you are getting. He brings youthfulness, creativity. He will attract young families because he is going through it.

Reference for Jason Mundie from David Keim 10/24/24

David Keim is a longtime friend/mentor to Jason that goes to church with him.

Describe the working situation you had with Jason?

David used to be very involved with the campus ministry. He knew Jason when he was a college student in the campus ministry. He was thrilled when he came back to lead the ministry. Since he has been back as the leader of the ministry David has been in a mentoring relationship with him. Jason would send his sermons to David to look over. He said they were always pretty solid and if he made any suggestions, he would respond humbly. He said that Jason has excelled as the campus minister and provide good, steady leadership. He stated that Jason has done a great job in navigating a lot of conservative/liberal landscape while in the position.

What are a few adjectives that would describe some of his strengths?

Thoughtful smart relevant sincere strong in faith cares about people

What are a few adjectives that would describe some of his weaknesses?

Not a lot of weakness. He does not have a "traditional minister presence". (can be a strength or weakness, depending on your age.

How would you describe his preaching?

Respects scripture, very sincere, bible based, practical, relevant, clear

How would you describe his teaching?

Same as teaching but not heard him teach much.

If he leaves, what are you going to miss the most?

He said he would miss his fresh perspective, would really miss his maturity, his creativity in the campus ministry because he has done a great job with that.

Can you describe his leadership style?

He is collaborative, thoughtful, strong leader. He is very strong with an interpersonal sensibility.

Describe him as a father and husband?

He is very dedicated and thoughtful. Seems to have a great marriage. He and Megan work well as a team. Great partnership.

Can you share a reason why we should not hire him?

No, he is a great one!

What do you see as the most compelling reason we should hire him?

He is young, smart, experienced, wants to get better, Dad was in ministry so there is some built in wisdom and mentoring there.

Reference for Jason Mundie Emily Roberts on 10/28/24.

Emily Roberts is a ministry co-worker.

Describe the working situation you had with Jason?

Emily is the women's minister and office manager that works along side of Jason in the campus ministry. They have worked together for 3 ½ years.

What are a few adjectives that would describe some of his strengths?

Very intentional very intentional in being led by God. Disciplined Driven Excellence in everything. Believes in always doing high quality work. He sought out Dusty because he wanted to be a better speaker.

What are a few adjectives that would describe some of his weaknesses?

Jason is more the big picture than details but can do the details. She was more the planner but as she has had to step back, he has taken on more.

How would you describe his preaching?

Very spirit led. He cares more about seeking the message he is supposed to give versus just an idea in his head. His sermons are intentional.

How would you describe his teaching?

Collaborative. Bible minded. He loves to talk and teach those who have questions and doubts. When teaching, his goal is to seek truth and honoring the person questioning.

If he leaves, what are you going to miss the most?

His wife. 😊 He has worked so hard to create and build a culture. It was an unhealthy culture when he came but he was able to change that from social group to Christ focused. I am going to miss his ability to lead a culture to be a growing culture.

Can you describe his leadership style?

Laid back, more guidance than aggressive, very collaborative. "He was technically my boss but his approach is, 'you know what you need to do, let me know if you need me.'" He is very empowering of our student leaders.

Describe him as a father and husband?

He is so sweet with his little girl. He reads a lot of parenting books and always seeks to be his best as a father. He is very dedicated to his family and marriage. His family is very involved in his ministry.

Can you share a reason why we should not hire him?

No, he is destined to serve in a larger context.

What do you see as the most compelling reason we should hire him?

Jason is a faithful person who will go where he is meant to go. If God wants him to be there, he will be there. He has a passion to lead people to be spirit led.